The Renaissance Collection can also be handcrafted to your specifications and truly customized to meet and surpass your expectations. Various levels of hand scraping, beveling and the special "recipe" of a custom stain are personally designed to create what you desire. The gorgeous antique appearance of our Renaissance Collection starts with European and Domestic hardwood, which has been naturally aged for 3-5 years. Natural splits, open knots and color variations provide a vintage character to this exclusive collection and add to the distinguished look of this spectacular hardwood flooring.
